Will Exhaust 136 Peremptory Challenges

There are 68 defendants in the Chiese gambling case now before Judge Robinson. Each defendant is entitled riaw to two challenges of jurymen That means a total of 136, and it is evident that every right of challenge is spring to be exercised. When the Court will be able to get down to the real trial of the case is a matter of conjecture, but it looks as if it might be | ome days, at any rate. Meantime, the ase is costing the Territory, according the statement of Deputy Attorney leneral Prosser, not less than $100 a 4 were gathered in by the members of the Grand Jury some time ago at the time they raided the Chinese joint on Smith street. The entire lot was found guilty by Police Judge Whitney and fined $25 each. Of course they promptly took an appeal to the Cir-

It took but a short time vesterday to xhaust the total number of jurymen in the regular venire, and Judge Robinson issued an order for a special venire of fifty more. R. W. Breckons is con-ducting the defense. This morning he proposed to the court that the entire venire be sworn and he would then pass them all for cause. This, he said, would expedite matters, as each of the 68 defendants was entitled to two challenges, and he intended to demand

Breckons' proposition looked to the prosecuting officer as if it had bugs in it, and he promptly refused to stand for it. "I think the matter had beiter take its regular course," he said. The Court, reluctantly, so ordered. Prosser suggested that he would go
